SIS is Commited to Service
The SIS Fall 2012 Cohort includes:

- 9 of the 20 Rangel Fellows* in the national Fall 2012 cohort
- 15 Former Americorps Volunteers
- 26 Returned Peace Corps Volunteers (RPCVs)

*Charles B. Rangel Int’ernational Fellowships are awarded in exchange for serving in the State Department's Foreign Service following graduation.

Are You a Student of Color?
SIS Invites all newly admitted students of color to a

Pre-Grad Day Dinner
Sunday, April 7, 2013
Location: TBA
RSVP: sisinclusion@american.edu

Please join us for this opportunity to meet a few current students and faculty prior to Grad Day activities on campus on April 8th!

... Welcoming
SIS is commited to fostering an inclusive community and is particularly focused on supporting students from historically under-represented groups with initiatives such as:

- Students of Color Breakfast during SIS Orientation
- Community Dialogue on the State of Inclusion in SIS
- Social for First-Generation Students
- Multicultural Alumni Panel
- Networking Workshop with Int’l Relations Professionals of Color

... Multicultural
30% of the Fall 2012 Cohort identify as domestic students of color

65 countries are represented in the current graduate student population in SIS

Are You a Student of Color?
SIS Invites all newly admitted students of color to a

Pre-Grad Day Dinner
Sunday, April 7, 2013
Location: TBA
RSVP: sisinclusion@american.edu

Please join us for this opportunity to meet a few current students and faculty prior to Grad Day activities on campus on April 8th!

... a Collaborative Community

- SIS students, faculty, staff, and administrators formed an Advisory Council on Diversity and Inclusion
- The LEED-Gold Certified building, a joint-project between the architect and the SIS Community, was designed to promote the collaborative culture of the school.